PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This exceptional 12-room, 5-bedroom home, a rarely-available Jacobs-built "Le Tour" model has been continuously updated and is set on a huge 1/3-acre site with mature trees and landscape. A courtyard entry leads through double doors to a grand central foyer. Great design provides access to all main floor rooms directly from this area. To one side you will find a convenient office, large enough to accommodate multiple workstations! On the opposite side is the separate formal dining room complete with a mirrored accent wall and beautiful oak floors. Spanning the rear and all flowing from one to another are the living room, family room and kitchen. The huge formal living room with new oak floors and a wall of sliding patio doors opens to the glorious yard and to the family room through a double doorway. The massive central family area includes both a large section for media and an additional game area adjacent to the raised-hearth stone fireplace. Located off the family room is the fully updated kitchen – enjoy new cabinets, granite counters, a garden window, big eating area, breakfast bar and sliders to the patio and yard! Also located on the main level is a wonderful laundry room, a powder room and access to the side-loading garage and fully finished basement. A circular stairway from the foyer leads to the upper level. A spacious upper foyer provides access to four family bedrooms, each with oak floors, abundant ceiling lights and ample custom-fitted closets. Two updated family hall baths include one with a whirlpool tub. Also located on this level is the spacious master bedroom suite. Also featuring oak floors, the master suite includes two customized walk-in closets and an updated steam bath complete with dual his/hers granite-topped vanities! Additional great space is located in the fully-finished basement which provides a large recreation room, a bonus room and a half bath. Other notable features of this special home include a fabulous big yard & patio, side-loading garage, two-zoned HVAC, newer windows and siding, and a desirable North Trail location, a family-friendly area with great access to schools, towns, shopping and highways. Don't miss this outstanding home combining exceptional space, condition and features with room for everyone and everything!
